CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Passion Week Services

Tonight there will be a special preparatory service at the First Methodist church at 7:30 conducted by the pastor. Thursday evening at 7:30 the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. All members of the church are reminded of these special services. Everybody is most cordially invited. Special Easter song service next Sunday evening at eight o'clock.

Mrs. Frances Effinger Raymond who has charge of the Gregg Publishing Co. in San Francisco visited the commercial department of Phoenix High Monday. She will probably give a talk to commercial students this morning.

The department encampment of the G. A. R. of Arizona will begin at the armory at ten o'clock this morning. The annual election of officers will take place. Refreshments will be served at noon by the Women's Relief Corps.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Zion Lutheran church will meet today with Mrs. Adolph Bottcher. Those attending are expected to be at the west terminus of the Washington street car line at 10 o'clock to be taken to the house.

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce meet today for the regular weekly glance over the business of the month. The meeting is at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The entertainment committee of the Chamber of Commerce, led by Vice President H. W. Ashbury, will meet Friday morning to superintend the motor party for the suffrage envoys, who come that day. The committee will make an appeal to members and friends of the Chamber of Commerce for the use of their cars.

The ladies of the Florence Crittenton Home will hold their Easter bazaar Saturday, April 22 in the Walker building, and request that all articles for the bazaar be left with Mrs. L. W. Cogswell or Mrs. C. N. Baker, 256 North Third avenue, before Friday April 21. Will be grateful for bungalow aprons, dresser scarfs, laundry bags, bonnets or home-made candy.

There will be a meeting of the Parent-Teachers association of the high school at the auditorium tomorrow night at 7:30.

The Civic League will meet this afternoon at seven o'clock at the chamber of commerce. The following bills will be taken under consideration: The Hughes Vocational Bill, the Abnerbie Adult Literacy Bill, the National Park Service Bill and the Keating Child Labor Bill. Mrs. J. L. B. Alexander, chairman of the legislative committee of the Arizona Federation of Women's Clubs, will report progress on the bills.

HEADQUARTERS CALL—Richard White secretary of the Board of Education for the Northern Normal School at Flagstaff, was a visitor in the office of State Superintendent of Schools C. O. Case yesterday afternoon.

SALE CONTINUED—The ticket sale for the luncheon to be given the members of the suffrage special, by the Congressional Union, has been continued until Friday, the twenty-first.

WANT CARPENTERS—M. Curley, general superintendent of the New Cornelia Copper company at Ajo, has notified the Chamber of Commerce he needs a few more carpenters and some Mexican mule drivers.

DEATH OF WILEY ALEXANDER—The funeral of Wiley Alexander who died on Monday night will be held at Moore & McCallan's today, the services being held at 1:30 o'clock. The interment will be at Scottsdale. The young man was twenty-one years of age and for some time had been a bell boy in one of the hotels of this city.

LEAVES FOR SAFFORD—Adjutant General Chas. R. Harris left this morning for Safford, where he will be present at the inspection of a newly organized militia company in that place. He also received word yesterday that a new company was being organized in Bisbee, with initial enlistment of 50 men who have regular army experience.

GILMORE'S GRIEF—George Gilmore broke down and cried like a child when Justice Parker sentenced him to five dollars or five days for stealing the tools from the Honniet home where he had been befriended. Friends of the man in court immediately paid the fine and the man sobbed his thanks and left the court room. Gilmore is traveling around the country in a wagon and stopped at Honniet's for some favor. Later they found tools missing and Mrs. Pearl Honniet swore out a complaint against the man.

BIG STOCK DEAL—A big stock deal completed yesterday by A. J. Moore of the Arizona Livestock commission company resulted in the sale of 24 head of fine beef stock for W. J. Kingsbury of Tempe. Seventy-eight yearling steers were bought for I. Rosenzweig, who will use them to stock a pasture ranch. Tom Willis of Florence, who is starting him a new ranch in the Aravaipa country, got 103 head of heifers and 62 cows. Willis recently sold his Pinal ranch, and is starting up in business in a new place.

MRS. MARSHALL WINS PRIZE IN FLOWER SHOW

Interest in Exhibit of Sweet Peas at Woman's Club Leaves no Doubt of the Strength of Move to Form Garden Club Here

Sweet peas of every hue were exhibited at the Woman's Club yesterday. The auditorium held a great profusion of every variety of the favorite bloom and the enthusiasm of the exhibitors and those in attendance left no doubt as to the possible organization of a Garden Club in Phoenix.

The growing of flowers gained an impetus by this exhibition and the eager questions asked and the ready answers assured those behind the Garden Club movement that there was an interest in home gardening.

There were attractive prizes for the best displays, the first being won by Mrs. E. A. Marshall, the second by Mrs. H. E. Shaw, the third by Mrs. E. G. Crove and the fourth by Mrs. B. E. Pierrepont. Mrs. Carl H. Anderson and Mrs. Robert A. Craig received special mention. Mrs. H. J. Jesson won the first prize for the best table decoration, a glass basket containing sweet peas of the pastel shades, with a bit of pale pink tulle. A glass bowl of pink sweet peas, submitted by Mrs. E. A. Marshall, won the second prize and a group of small baskets filled with sweet peas of pale tones received third prize and was exhibited by Mrs. R. J. Elliott. An American flag entered by Tom M. Smith was given a special mention.

The exhibition was held under the auspices of the civic education department. Mrs. H. B. St. Claire, chairman, and was in direct charge of Mrs. Dwight B. Heard. The judges were Mrs. Louis H. Chalmers and Mrs. James H. McClintock. A special feature that attracted marked attention were the bunches of sweet peas sent by the Ellis Kindergarten, each small cluster having been gathered by the little tots who grew them.

In addition to the exhibition a debate was held on "Should Our Country Be Prepared for War?" Mrs. Henry C. Lockett and Miss Edith Evans, who took the affirmative side, were declared winners. The negative was well handled by Mrs. Eugene Brady O'Neill and Mrs. R. C. Dryer. The judges were Mrs. A. W. Merrill, Mrs. C. O. Anderson and Mrs. J. L. B. Alexander. Both sides brought out interesting arguments and were heartily applauded.

At the conclusion of the program Miss Inez Abbott held an art exhibition under the auspices of the art and literature department. Miss Abbott showed an hundred carbon prints and colored photographs. A great deal of interest was demonstrated in the prints of the pictures of the old masters, the coloring being especially good. The prints especially popular were of Aurora, The Forum, The Iber, showing the Saint Angelo Castle, and many others were favorable comment. Miss Abbott is willing to sell her collection or any part of it, and may be reached by R. F. D. No. 2.

ED TOVEREA HERE—E. A. Toverea, one of the leading business men of Bisbee, is in Phoenix for a day or two on business.

ON VISIT HERE—Mrs. Inez L. Coe, of San Jose, Cal., is in Phoenix for a visit with her mother, Mrs. J. C. Davis of 228 North Fifth avenue.

BOGUS CHECK CASE—D. O. De Tar who was brought from Outman charged with passing a bogus check was arraigned in Justice Parker's court yesterday. The check was made out to Mayer and Hall for fifty dollars and was returned from the First National Bank of Globe marked "No Funds." O. B. Hall swore to the complaint against De Tar who admitted signing the check but declares it has been paid twice.

COMMISSION MEETING—A meeting of the city commission will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. This is the regular semi-monthly session and it is expected that paving matters will form the principal business. Incidentally it is expected that this will be the final session of the commission as now organized, the next meeting being held at 10 o'clock on the morning of May 1, at which time Mayor Corstain and Commissioners Jones and Woods will be indicted into office.

There's no question about it—

The present weather demands a Straw Hat—

America's newest styles are here (the famous "Knox" hat is sold at this shop alone in Phoenix).

Tomorrow is "official" Straw Hat Day. Don't you believe in preparedness.

AN INCENDIARY FIRE—Fire of probably incendiary origin threatened the destruction about 11 o'clock last night of the small garage at the rear of the residence of C. H. Kunselman, 322 North Third avenue. A Franklin car in the garage was badly damaged. The garage was discovered to be afire last Saturday night, but the blaze was extinguished at that time without damage. The police and the fire chief are working on the case.

WILL REMAIN HERE—Dean Scarlett, of Trinity Pro-Cathedral, announced yesterday that he had declined the call tendered him by Grace Church of Providence, R. I. The dean announced that he felt that in spite of the advancement which the new church would give him, he felt it his duty to remain here, where his work was assuming larger proportions and giving gratifying results.

REVIVAL INTEREST UNABATED
Large Attendance Marks Beginning of New Week of Christian Church Revival

The Christian church was filled last evening to hear evangelist Barnett's sermon on "A Change of Heart." He handled the subject from a scriptural standpoint showing that the term heart at various times referred to man's intellect or his emotional nature or his will. The gospel has an orderly plan for changing the heart. There were two additions and at the close Rev. Barnett baptized one, which brings the total for the series to 54. Mr. Carter sang a gospel solo entitled, "Give Me Thy Heart." He will sing each evening this week. Tonight is to be Young People's night, and Rev. Barnett will preach upon "Following Jesus."
